Singapore, 7 May 2008 – OCBC Bank and The Business Times, co-presenters of the Emerging Enterprise Award 2008 (EE2008), are pleased to announce the list of the home-grown enterprises that have made it to the finals of the inaugural Emerging Enterprise Award 2008.

- Locally registered
- In operations for more than 3 years but less than 7 years
- Have an annual turnover of less than $10 million
- Two years' audited financial records*

Up to 3 winners will each stand to receive $380,000 in cash (interest free loan), grants, consultancy services, as well as educational and information technology packages.

Said Mr Tan Chor Sen, Head of Emerging Business, Enterprise Banking, OCBC Bank: "We would like to congratulate the businesses that have been shortlisted for the Emerging Enterprise Award. They were selected from the many applications we have received, and they come from a myriad of industries ranging from animation, lifestyle to food & beverage.

"These finalists have shown immense potential and have impressed us with charting new frontiers in their respective fields despite the size and relative young age of their businesses. We believe they will serve as inspirations to their fellow entrepreneurs as well as contribute to our local business community."

Mr Alvin Tay, Editor of The Business Times, said: "The Business Times is pleased with the response from the local SMEs for the inaugural year of the Emerging Enterprise Awards. It is encouraging to note that the finalists come from different backgrounds and industries, a
